Dear Bobby,

How can anyone express thanks adequately for all the years you gave to me and the band?

I can only say with the deepest gratitude that what you gave to me as a man, let alone a member of the band, is something that no amount of thanks can truly express.

We were a great band, and I think we will be remembered for our contribution to the cause of Country Dancing in spite of the times we were loathe to 'lift the box'.

There are many things I could say which would probably fill a book, but we both know there is no need for that.

I can only reiterate what I have already said, and that is, sincere thanks for all the good & useful years we put in together.

The future is yours and I wish you every good thing you would wish for yourself.

---

My sincere gratitude & thanks come from the heart, and that is the best I can offer you.

Sincerely yours.

Stan.
